

The Welcome portal for newberliners

Welcome to Talent Berlin – the Welcome portal for NewBerliners. We pool information, facts, tips and tricks around living and working in Berlin in five sections.

THESE ARE:

Working: This section is fact-based and provides information about the Berlin job market and its requirements, Berlin industries and continuing education in the capital region. In addition, we support our users in their job search.

Living: In this section, our users will find practical information about living in Berlin: information about Berlin's districts and their district offices, finding accommodation, family life from young to elderly, Berlin's public transport system, as well as leisure tips.

Arrival: This section provides help and information on the following topics: Visa, Residence Permit, Health Insurance, Electricity & Gas, Taxes & Account, Learning German, Making Contacts and more.

Magazine: Our magazine is all about event highlights, exciting job stories, success stories, videos about working and living in Berlin and more.

Jobs: From an architect to a zoo director – our meta job portal combines the major part of the published vacancies for the capital region. Companies from Berlin and Brandenburg can insert their ads for free.

Our focus in every section is working in Berlin. All contents are related to work or daily work routine. Our portal always puts emphasis on service. Just a few clicks redirect you to helpful websites. Our concrete offer: different checklists and PDFs for download. Talent Berlin is the first step to a new career and a new stage of life in the capital region.

With a strong presence in the social media, Talent Berlin deepens the contact to its users. We are active on Facebook and Twitter. By regularly presenting employers and jobs, we set the focus in the social media on working in Berlin as well. Additionally, we inform on trade shows, professional events and specific Berlin topics including useful tips for students and interns. Whether it is the weather or current job offers – we publish exciting information on Berlin and Brandenburg every day.

Our community is what makes us special. Users can directly in social media ask questions and get personal answers on short notice. New and old Berliners link up within the community and exchange experience. The community and the portal are supported by our editors on a daily basis. Thus, Talent Berlin is always up to date with the most current information.

Talent Berlin won The Best Class City Talent Attraction Award in 2018 and 2019. The Best in Class Awards were created to honor and promote organizations and initiatives that are at the forefront of student and collaborative living, working, and learning.
